each student appreciate lawful conducted meetings."

The membership is open to anyone now an officer in homeroom or class or anyone ambitious to become an officer.

Table games for boys has Mrs. Ferguson as the sponsor. The boys have decided that they would like to play chess and checkers. They will have a tournament during the semester.

The Civil Defense and Fire Patrol is composed of thirty-five members according to Mrs. Gilliland, the sponsor. They are to assist with fire and air raid drills. These members are to help with local, state, and national civil defense programs.

Cooperation of the student body with the patrol members will be necessary for the success of this club.

Another of the new clubs is the Oil Painting Club with Mr. Baker sponsoring. The club is set up for pupils who have not had an art course and also the pupils who have.

The pupils who can not sketch will use number paints. The ones who have had art courses and can sketch will originate their own paintings. All of them are at liberty to paint any kind of scene or picture that is orthodox.

Thirty pupils are in the club now. Some of the pupils who have had art courses are planning to paint the landscapes from the Gym B building.

Mrs. Moreland's Algebra Research Club was designed for students who are interested in and are capable of doing advanced work in algebra. Open to ninth grade algebra students this is not a remedial club.

The Chatter Business Club is sponsored by Mrs. Morgan. The purposes of this club are to get advertisements, to finance and distribute the school paper.

Stage Costumes and Property Club meets with Mrs. Junger in room 112. This club is being formed to collect costumes and props to be used for stage productions, to organize a system for storing them in the stage work room and to work with groups putting on assembly programs.

Membership is limited to twenty students in the eighth and ninth grades.

Miss Grossman's Health Council is working with the health personnel and clubs to see that Pershing has the highest health standards of any school in Houston.

Mrs. Weir's club is Indian Lore. Handicrafts are done in class and reports are made from books read in class. Students report on visits to Indian villages.

Miss Parks teaches Egnlish and Journalism. She taught at Jackson for two and one half years. A graduate of the University of Houston, she has done graduate work there and at the University of Paris in Paris, France.

A seventh grade English teacher, Mrs. Oliver has been teaching in Houston for about twenty years. She attended Baylor University and graduated from the University of Houston.

Mrs. Gilliland is teaching seventh and eighth grade math. She started teaching at Pershing the last six weeks of the spring semester. A graduate of Kansas State College, Mrs. Gilliland for five years taught in Guthrie, Oklahoma.

The new Algebra teacher is Miss Schultz. Coming from Kansas and Oklahoma, she has taught in junior and senior high schools there and is a graduate of Kansas State Teachers College.

Mr. Glidden teaches seventh grade math. A graduate of the University of Houston he is in his first year of teaching.

Teaching science in room 22 is Mrs. Weir. She has taught seventh and eighth grades in San Antonio and at Jackson here in Houston. Her alma mater is the University of Texas.

Miss Curson teaches seventh and eighth grade science. A former student of Pershing herself, Miss Curson is a graduate of Rice Institute. She taught for three years at oJhnston Junior High.

The new Band Director is Mr. Gimble. A graduate of the University of Houston, this is his first year of teaching.

Another floating teacher is Mrs. Cameron. She has been teaching for the past four years at Johnston Junior High. An eighth grade English and Social Studies teacher, Mrs. Cameron is a graduate of Russell Sage College in New York.

Mrs. Durham teaches Latin I in room 6. Another former Pershing student, Mrs. Durham is in her first year of teaching.

Another first year teacher is Mrs. Bosworth. A teacher of math, she is a graduate of the University of Houston.

Mrs. Morgan, an English teacher, has previously taught at Hogg, Edison and Deady. A graduate of Rice Institute, Mrs. Morgan says, "Pershing's tops."

Mrs. Moses, a graduate of the University of Texas, is a seventh and eighth grade science teacher. She has previously taught science and chemistry.

Seventh grade music students have Mrs. Morse, a graduate of the University of Houston. A former teacher at Johnston, Mrs. Morse says, "I like very much teaching here at Pershing."

Mrs. Pevy, a graduate of the University of Houston, is now teaching social studies. She formerly taught in elementary school and likes teaching at Pershing.

The new boys' gym teacher is Mr. Durrenberger. He holds a B.A. degree from St. Edwards University and a M.A. from Columbia University. Mr. Durrenberger's two sons went to Persihng and his wife formerly taught gym here.

Mrs. Shepperd is the new sponsor of the Boys' Chorus. A teacher of music, Mrs. Shepperd has taught in elementary, junior and senior high schools.

Fads And Fashions Are Back Again

The fashion girls for this issue are Meta Strauss and Kay Schramm. Meta is five feet four inches tall; has long blond hair, hazel eyes. and is a member of Mrs. Oliver's low eight homeroom. Kay is a member of Mrs. Morse's high nine homeroom and is five feet two inches tall, has short light brown hair and brown eyes.

The fashion rage this season is the jumper. There seems to be two main styles, the jumper with the full or straight skirt. The three neck lines are scoop, square, and v. As for waistlines the empire, princess, and torso are the ones to wear. The jumper will probably be the most popular this fall.

More styles to remember are the circular skirts, orlon sweater sets, close fitting long torso blouses, man-tailored shirts, and dyed to match separates.

Long and feminine looking is the way to wear your hair this fall and winter.

Suede and leather loafers, blouses with three-quarter sleeves, turtle-neck sweaters, and baby doll blouses are all fashion news again this year.

NHS ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

The officers for the National Honor Society have been elected for the fall semester.

The new president is Nina Faulkner in Mr. Hansen's H-9 homeroom. Ann Weaver in Mrs. Morse's homeroom is the new vice president.

Jane Ramsey in Mrs. Morse's homeroom is the new secretary. To act as the treasurer Jimy Lindley in the Credential Committee is Barbara Jackson from Mr. La Verne's L-9 homeroom.

Weaver Draws Best Cover

Barry Weaver of Mrs. King's homeroom and Mike Adams of Mrs. Rosson's homeroom were the winner and runner-up for the best cover for this year's directory.

The directory will be out in the middle of November and will sell for $ .35. Approximately 2400 names will appear in it.

A Booster Club representative will be around to all the homerooms to pick up the money for the directories.

PERSHING PRATTLE

Well, Pandas, another year has started here at good old Pershing, which means more news for the eyes and ears of the CHATTER . . and here it is . . .

The Carousel Dance Club opened the season with a Football Dance, September 23. The dance was a success, and so was the intermission—the cheerleaders who were there took over and did some cheers. Marily Ellis, Sukey Fenoglio, Pugie Cornwell, Letitia Kinzbach and Audrey Riggs led them.

Were you walking down the hall when all of a sudden two hands started frantically waving? If you did, there's no need to panic . . it was only Marilyn Martin and Robert Laguarta saying hello.

Carole Cloninger, better known as "C. C.", gave a slumber party the Friday night of the Carousel Dance. Some of the merry night-gowners were Claire Chavanne, Nancy Clubertson, Sandy Cole, and Liz Towles.

The next morning a coke party was given by Adele Tucker, Toby Trumps, and Margaret Moore.

Don't be surprised if you hear strange sounds coming from Mrs. Rollins' typing class fourth period. Ann Marie Johnson really can't help that cause of hay fever.

September 16, at Golfcrest Country Club were seen Donna Turner, Evie Williams and Pat Johnson.

Judy Scheelter welcomed her birthday with a small party.

The Gambadians Dance Club held a sock hop at Briar Club on September 30. Letitia Kinzbach got the prize for the cutest socks.

Look for the next issue of Prattle. Your name may be in it.
